

- Thadey Muyenzi: Abducted by state security agents on December 26, 2016, he was last seen alive the day after Christmas at Mutangana Building in Nyabugogo, Kigali.
- Venuste Rwabukamba: Businessman. He was found shot on October 10, 2016 in Rwamagana shortly after giving an interview about the seizure of his assets by the Rwandan state. His death was falsely reported as a suicide by the police.
- Christian Maniriho: Shot dead on April 9, 2016 in Kibungo.
- Father Dr. Dominique Karekezi: Director of INATEK university, he was found dead on August 10, 2015. He had been strangled.
- Capt. Dieudonne Kayitare: Brutally murdered in February 2015, his assets were subsequently taken over by the Rwandan state.
- Assinapol Rwigara: Businessman. He was stabbed multiple times in the back of his head on February 4th, 2015. To make the public believe it was an accident, he was placed in his car. His assassination took place one month after he wrote a letter to the President about the obstructions the authorities were imposing on his businesses and real estate projects and ten days after giving a press conference on those same issues.
- Richard Mazimpaka: Former senior employee at Fina Bank and GT Bank, he was strangled on December 3, 2014 and government newspapers quickly spread the news that he had committed suicide.
- John Ndagijimana: His body was found with stab wounds to the head. He died shortly thereafter on June 4, 2014 in Nyabisindu, Kigali.